Jobkeeper 2 – software guides for employers

If you are using software for your payroll, and to help manage Jobkeeper2.0 for your employees, there are some updates you'll need to process in the next pay run to keep your reporting ontrack.

Because every piece of software is different, we've put the list below together to help give you a starting point for where to find more information.

As always, if you get stuck please feel free to reach out and one of the team here can give you a hand.
